MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Comments on Student Critiques and Final Report - Project USEFUL No. 2

1. This office has examined the student comments on subject course and in making Recommendations in paragraph 2, below, has included the concensus of officers from this office who attended most of USEFUL No. 2.

2. Generally this office concurs with the final report of [REDACTED]; however, the following specific Recommendations are made:

a. That USEFUL courses be continued and reduced in length only to the extent necessary to eliminate the movies and unnecessary repetition.

b. That in future courses attempts be made to select individuals to make presentations on ability to make a concise, straightforward presentation rather than selecting the most expert individual in the technical aspects of the subject.

c. That all instructors be required to prepare an outline of conference or presentation; this outline to be closely scrutinized by the officer in charge of USEFUL to ensure that:

(1) A frank approach is taken in discussing CIA capabilities and problems, but negative attitudes avoided.

(2) A positive approach is taken insofar as CIA actions or plans designed to increase our capabilities and/or solve our problems.

(3) Staff problems internal to CIA are avoided.

(4) Unnecessary repetition is avoided.

d. That each instructor be required to rehearse and, if necessary, re-rehearse his presentation before a group of his contemporaries and a member of the training staff. These rehearsals should
